Oxfordshire Artweeks 2024

Welcome to the 42nd Oxfordshire Artweeks festival during which you can enjoy an amazing variety of art by Oxfordshire artists, designers and makers - in artists' homes and studios, in galleries and gardens, Oxford colleges, churches and a wealth of other art spaces.

From the traditional to the contemporary and multidisciplinary, across the county there's something to delight, intrigue and inspire everyone. Explore painting, sculpture, ceramics and printmaking; look out for fashion and furniture; discover glass art, mosaics and other marvels; and perhaps choose a treasure or two to take home with you.

Within these pages you will find a variety of types of exhibition, all of which are free to visit – simply drop in during their opening hours. Some artists team up to host group shows while others open their studios (look for the OS throughout this guide). All welcome you both to enjoy the art on show and to chat about their materials, methods and inspiration. At most venues, some of which are extraordinary in themselves, you can meet the artist or maker. If you are keen to see a particular person, please call ahead to confirm they will be there when you visit. In some places there are also demonstrations and you'll also find some excellent cake (look for the D and R respectively throughout this guide).

Thank you for supporting Oxfordshire's artist community.

APRIL – JULY 2024

Introducing printmaker Sally-Anne Stewart

Printmaker Sally-Anne Stewart is the winner of the 2024 Artweeks Mary Moser Award, an annual award established to honour the late Mary Moser's commitment to Artweeks and to further the career of a professional artist who has taken up art as a second career later in life.

Originally a journalist, whilst developing her career in PR and communications at Oxford University, Sally learnt how to make linocut prints in her spare time. Having discovered a passion for printmaking, at the end of 2020, she took the plunge to become a full-time artist.

Sally's art is largely inspired by the natural world, trees, plants and fungi. She also loves the places where people meet the environment, as children play in the waves, a rowing boat cuts across the surface of the water or a thoughtful swimmer contemplates the water on the edge of a turquoise lido.

"I'm finding myself increasingly drawn to urban architecture and my latest piece is of the 1960s brutalist buildings of Oxford's St Catherine's College," says Sally. "In my work I prefer the bold straight lines of modern designs over the iconic, the ornate and the decorative."

Now, in addition to creating her own work, Sally runs regular linocut classes and has started a podcast, Art Musings with another East Oxford Artweeks artist Carole Theriault in which they ask a variety of artists about their loves, learnings, fears and hopes as they negotiate the art world.

ARTIST CALL OUT FOR 2025

Are you:

a passionate artist or designer-maker who is keen to share your art, skills or story with others?

an emerging artist looking to build your profile?

a seasoned professional looking for contacts, sales and commissions?

an enthusiastic amateur keen to show your work to a wider audience?

or part of a community group with art to share ?

Many of the full time artists and makers within these pages took their first step to becoming a professional with an Artweeks exhibition. There is no selection criteria – you simply need to live or work in Oxfordshire or be part of an Oxfordshire-based art group. You can choose to exhibit from home or find a venue that suits you better.

Interested? Come to the free event 'Thinking about taking part in Artweeks?' on Zoom at 7pm on Thursday 26th September. Register your interest, and receive the link nearer the time, by emailing artweeks@artweeks.org. Then, from October, sign up for Artweeks membership and submit exhibition details for next year either as a solo artist or as part of a group. Alternatively exhibit on-line only and be included in our artist directory pages as a virtual entry.

All details and payment must be submitted by 31st December.
